Our goal at the Klamath County Fairgrounds is to make renting our facilities a simple and pleasant experience. By filling out this survey, you can help us not only provide better service to our patrons, but also suggest things that could help us choose improvements and changes in the future. If you answer any of these items as fair or poor, please explain why so that we can better assist you in the future. Also, if you feel there was an employee that went above and beyond your expectations, please mention that in the comments so that we can give them the proper recognition.
